Our Rental Contract provides that the customer renting equipment is responsible to Ralph's General Rent-All Inc. for any loss or damage to the equipment and for its return in the same condition in which received, normal wear and tear excepted. The customer's responsibility for accidental damage, can be waived by accepting the Damage Waiver Option (DWO) at a cost of 12% of the total rental fee of each contract. Excluded from this DWO is any damage due to theft, burglary, abuse, theft by conversion, intentional damage and mysterious disappearance. The DWO does not cover damage to tires and tubes caused by blowouts, bruises, cuts, punctures or other causes inherent in the use of equipment. The customer is still required to take reasonable precautions against damage and to properly maintain the equipment while in their possession, including securing equipment properly when being transported, adequate and proper servicing of equipment such as lubrication and prevention from freezing. It would not cover equipment if the damage results from violation of the terms of our rental contract or use not permitted by law or damage resulting from overloading, exceeding rate capacities, misuse or abuse. The renter is responsible for any and all damage. In addition, if the renter has insurance for damage to rented equipment, the renter shall himself exercise, and shall empower Ralph's General Rent-All, Inc. to exercise, all rights available to the renter to obtain recovery under insurance, shall cooperate with Ralph's to obtain recover and all insurance proceeds shall be given or assigned to Ralph's.
